Plat Books on Sale Now!
Who owns Montgomery County? Thousands of people have a piece of it. Now they are all listed in the new plat book published by the Montgomery Soil & Water Conservation District (SWCD) with Mapping Solutions. Updated and in print for the first time since 1997, it is available for $25 at the Montgomery SWCD office!

The 90-page spiral-bound book features township and range maps of Montgomery County. These maps include the property boundaries for all rural parcels within the townships, the name of the owner and the number of acres owned. A handy Landowner Index and an Index of the Initialed Parcels allow for easy cross referencing. Also included in this new edition is information about the Montgomery SWCD, a Streams and Watershed Boundaries Map, and a Road Map. As an added bonus there is an explanation of the public land survey system. In addition to the printed book, a premium wall map is available for $50. Two digital versions of the Montgomery County landowner maps are available at mappingsolutionsGIS.com.

This information is highly valuable to anyone with a need to know who owns land in Montgomery County. Prospective or adjoining property owners, hunters, foresters, timber and petroleum industry personnel, emergency services, realtors and many others will find many uses for a copy or two of the new Montgomery County Plat Book.

Stop in or call the Montgomery SWCD with any questions and to get your copy of the new Plat Book!

Native Perennial Flower Sale!
Saturday, June 17th, 2017 from 10:00am - 3:00pm
Montgomery SWCD office

Are you looking for an inexpensive way to add native perennial flowers to your landscaping? Yes, we have great options at our Tree & Plant Sale (pages 4-7!), however, if you’re looking for more species, larger volumes, and/or are willing to start with smaller plants, then come to the 2nd Annual Native Perennial Flower Sale! For sale are the ‘volunteer’ seedlings from our native perennial landscaping. If you’d like to help with the transplanting or sale, call Kristen Lauer to volunteer! Native plants thrive in conditions that are challenging to other plants because they are fine-tuned to this environment! They are necessary for many butterflies and native bees, whose young often need specific plants. Birds and other small wildlife also depend on natives for nutritious food and good shelter.

The sale is first come, first served, and by donation only. Availability is determined by what grows and is transplanted in time. Don’t miss this inexpensive way to add beautiful flowers to your landscape!

Scholarships Available!
Take a week to learn about trees and wildlife, on us! Students in 9-12 grade who are at least 15 and a Montgomery county resident can win a full scholarship (worth $375) to Ohio Forestry & Wildlife Conservation Camp at Camp Muskingum in Carroll County Ohio!

Are you headed to college this fall and majoring in Natural Resources Management or an Agricultural Field? Each year, the Montgomery SWCD awards one $500 scholarship to a deserving student in Montgomery county!

For more details, deadlines, and the applications, go to www.MontgomerySWCD.org, give us a call, or stop by our office. We’d love to help you on your learning journey!
Got Plants? Why?

Wherever people live we make choices about what plants to get rid of and what plants to add. Why? I encourage you to look at your landscaping with new eyes, considering what each plant can offer beyond something pretty. Those purposes can be as individual as each of us!

Maybe you want to make your yard a haven for wildlife. If you are interested in local food, what’s more sustainable than getting food from your own backyard? Perhaps you like photography. Attracting birds and butterflies to a lovely backdrop of blooming flowers in your backyard fits right into that hobby! Or, maybe you keep bees and want them to have plenty of nectar options. All of these can easily be accomplished with a landscape of pretty plants. The Montgomery SWCD Tree & Plant Sale offers you options that fit several of these objectives at once. We’ve added icons to the descriptions this year to help you to find the plants that best fit your plans. For further reading on creating landscapes that serve a greater purpose, consider Bringing Nature Home by Douglas W. Tallamy, and Gaia’s Garden: A Guide to Home-Scale Permaculture by Toby Hemenway. These books offer two excellent perspectives and tips on creating landscapes for the purpose of sustaining wildlife and sustaining us. These goals are not mutually exclusive. Happy reading and happy planting!

Passing of Technician Dan Jackson

A constant sense of humor and a story to go along with any situation. A kind smile and a knowledge of the families and farms in the area that is unmatched. These are some of the things that Dan Jackson was known for, and they are missing from our office and our community now. On Tuesday, November 15th, 2016, District Technician Dan Jackson passed away unexpectedly. He had been battling pneumonia.

Dan was very passionate about preserving farm ground for future generations, and was instrumental in building our Local Agricultural Easement Purchase Program. This picture, a favorite of Dan among the Montgomery SWCD staff, is from when he was awarded the Ohio Farmland Preservation Ambassador Award at the 13th Annual Ohio Farmland Preservation Summit in 2013. He is greatly missed.

For those wishing to send cards, his wife Carol Jackson’s address is: 307 Lawson Ave, New Lebanon, Ohio, 45345, and his brother Dave Jackson’s address is 158 S. Diamond Mill Road, New Lebanon, Ohio 45345. They requested that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to a charity of your choice.
